Integrated Project Management Named to “Inc. 5000” for Second Year One of the Top 100 Fastest-Growing Companies in Chicago Area

Burr Ridge, IL, August 25, 2008 – Integrated Project Management Company, Inc. (IPM) today announced it was named to Inc. magazine’s annual list of the 5,000 fastest-growing private companies nationwide for a second consecutive year. The firm provides onsite project management services to a broad range of industries, helping companies operate more efficiently and effectively. IPM was also identified as one of the Chicago area’s top 100 businesses, growing its revenues by nearly 150 percent in the last three years.

“I attribute our continued growth, at base, to our unwavering dedication to our clients and uncompromising commitment to honesty and integrity,” says C. Richard Panico, IPM president and CEO. As part of its unique service model, IPM professionals work alongside client teams from planning through project completion, with full accountability for project success. “It’s rewarding to see that our passion for excellence is resonating locally and nationally.”

According to Inc. 5000 project manager Jim Melloan, “The Inc. 5000 gives an unrivalled portrait of young, underreported companies across all industries doing fascinating things with cutting-edge business models, as well as older companies that are still showing impressive growth.”

Founded in 1988, IPM serves the life sciences, industrial, food and beverage, consumer products, and healthcare industries. Service areas include product development, process improvement, and operations optimization.
